

WHO WE ARE

Established in 1954, the Oakville Curling Club is a vibrant, active community of more than 800 members and families. We are committed to the development of curling, good sportsmanship and fun, friendly competition. Recognized nationally and internationally for our world class curling ice, the OCC is host to a variety of international curling, charity and community events, and athletes participating weekly in friendly league competition. Our commitment to host curling and social gatherings has helped raise more than $1.25 million for charity and philanthropic causes over the past decade.
